

Join The Education Trust-West, Coleman Advocates, Youth Together & Californians' for Justice (San Jose) for two important community events

Ensuring that every single student, regardless of class, race or zip code has access to an excellent education

An Historic Moment in Time: The Bay Area Move to College and Career for All Thursday, May 6, 2010, 5:00-8:30 PM

*East Bay Community Foundation
200 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza
Oakland, CA 94612-2005
Dinner, Childcare, Translation and Parking will be provided*

Come examine the college and career readiness for all movement in the Bay Area. Participants will walk away with a deeper understanding about how districts and/or communities are moving forward with a college and career agenda and where they are in the process.

Please RSVP to Melanie Forter @
mforter@edtrustwest.org no later than April 30, 2010.

For more information, call (510) 465-6444, ext. 328

With hope,
The Education Trust-West, Colman Advocates, Youth
Together, and Californians' For Justice (San Jose)

The Practice of College and Career for All: Moving the A-G Agenda Forward in Your Community

Saturday, June 5, 2010, 10:00 AM-4 PM

Examine what practices must be in place for an A-G curriculum to come about. We will focus on subjects such as: English Learners, Standards, School Culture, Scheduling, and Interventions and Supports, and answer burning questions about ensuring success in our communities.